“You can allow yourself to be black, but only if your are a football or basketball player”

Malick Gueyen came to Gran Canaria in 2006 without papers. The beginning was difficult, especially because of the foreign language. Today, he tells the pupils of IES Tamogant, he’s a member of the group “Manteros”. “Manteros” or street sellers offer their handmade goods for sale on a “manta” (blanket). It is illegal and therefore they pack up their things in the blanket and flee when the police come. In his homeland, Senegal, it is an activity you do when you cannot do anything else. But is not a crime there.

He described the discrimination and injustice against his fellow men who try to do their best in their situation.

“We all want a worthy life but they make a crime of what people are forced to do because of poverty

At the same time, almost 4,000 km away, the partner school Ádám Gimnázium in Hungary works on the topic of Europe and sends wishes for Europe, wishes for a better world.

Then the project participants tried the recipes from our cookbook “Mein Lieblingsrezept” on Europe Day in Hungary.

“Say it with music”: a Hymn against Prejudice and a Flash mob for Tolerance.

The Kerpen pupils performed their project hymn „Basta ya!“, which was especially composed for this occasion, on the schoolyard. In this hymn they demand an end to racism and discrimination and take a stand on the motto question of the current Europe Week: Me without Europe?

The audience celebrated with enthusiasm.

Afterwards many pupils danced together on the schoolyard. The song „Ich bau `ne Stadt für Dich“ illustrates the dream for the ERASMUS+ Project to create a more just world, or, as one pupil explained, “building a new city on our city where there is room for everyone.” Even a group from the Ulrich Grade School in Sindorf came and participated.

At Gymnasium Kerpen recipes were tried and evaluated, too.

The recipes come from the cookbook „Mein Lieblingsrezept“, a collection of recipes from the partner countries Hungary, Spain and Germany, as well as the home countries of the refugees the group works with.

The proceeds from the sale go to our sponsored class in the Amaro Kher Project in Cologne, a class of Roma refugees.

Eating better together

This was the motto for the initiative ACTION NEW NEIGHBOURS – Refugee Help Archdiocese Cologne, which the Erasmus+ pupils took part in with refugees from Syria in cooperation with Social Work

Sindorf on 28th April 2018 on the Square of Integration in Kerpen-Sindorf. International groups prepared different wraps and distributed them to the visitors, as integration works best through the stomach.

At work (above): Mohanad, Mohammed and Hannah with the support of a mother (Frau Potrykus).

The Erasmus+ pupils took the opportunity to present their projects and try them out (board games and puzzles)

Another highlight of this festival was the performance of the 2nd Flash mob “Ich baue eine Stadt für dich”.
